Main Dishes

The Roasted Iga Babi

The Roasted Iga Babi ..... $18.90

Traditional recipe from The Land Of The Gods. Juicy, tender, babyback ribs are glazed in a slightly spicy and a very sweet and sticky sauce. Grilled to perfection! Serve with sambal matah.

The Balinese Ayam Bakar ..... $19.90

Marinated in kecap manis (sweet soy sauce), coconut oil, shallot, garlic, chilli pepper, coriander, tamarind juice, candlenut, turmeric and galangal.

The Ram-ly Burger ..... $10.90

Local all time beloved burger!!!! Now you can avoid the heat in pasar malam!!! Our homemade patty itself wrapped in an omelette and topped with several condiments which is mayonnaise, chili sauce, Worcestershire sauce and our best secret sauce! Tangy, Sweet, Salty and a hint of pepper!

The Fish & Chips ..... $18.90

Literally fish and chips. BUT! Our locally farmed red snapper, is super tender and flaky not MUSHY! Crispy fries as a companion.

The Hokkien Mee aka Linguine ..... $16.90

This lip-smacking pasta dish! Has juicy prawns, squid, pork belly strips, egg and crunchy fried pork lard that makes everything taste extra good. It is served with sambal chilli and a squeeze of lime juice for that added zing.

The Adobo (Pork Belly) ..... $13.90

The national dish of Phillipines, with right balance of soy sauce, vinegar, black pepper and sugar that create an incredibly sticky glaze that has a depth of flavour like it's been slow cooked – but it's not! Serve with hot steaming rice.

The Ultimate Gado-Gado ..... $8.90

Gado-Gado means mix-mix! Versatile blanched veges, boil egg, tahu and fried tempeh topped with our homemade peanut sauce. Free Flow of Keropok!

The Hotplate Bistek Tagalog ..... $20.00

This is a Unique Filipino dish! Thin sliced ribeye cooked in a flavourful citrusy sauce, made of soy sauce and calamansi the topped with lots of fresh onion rings. Serve on a sizzling hotplate!
